

Comments

I believe that there is additional space available at the top of car park, in the 'quarried' area, and that this would be a better option than removing barriers and banks at the bottom end.

I have seen chiffchaff nesting in the brambles near the car park, so would be worried at too much clearance. I wouldn't like to see tarmac replace the stone either.